Mousehole Male Voice Choir
KEUR MEBYON PORTHENYS

A warm welcome to St Mary's for this two choir concert. Mousehole usually have a get-together with Nankersey every couple of years, and it is a pleasure to renew the association, as they venture across from Falmouth to sing with us. It is the first concert this year for both choirs. There is a lot to look forward to this year, and both choirs will be participating in the Cornish International Festival of Male Choirs which is on the weekend of 1st – 3rd May. Details of all the other exciting events can be found on the Facebook page and website of each choir.

It is very encouraging that both choirs here tonight have experienced a growth in membership over the past couple of years, and some will be enjoying their first concert together. We are pleased to welcome Elaine Tangye, Musical Director of Nankersey, and their accompanist Michael Uren, and congratulate the choir on their 75th Anniversary last year.

Mousehole will be conducted by Stephen Lawry, and have a new accompanist, who will be no stranger to followers of the choir. After the wonderful twenty year tenure of Annette Turton, our deputy accompanist David Ceredig-Evans has now stepped up to the post. We wish him well for a long and happy time playing for the choir.

We hope you will have an enjoyable evening with us.

HYMN FOR ALL

And Can It Be?

(last two lines of each verse are repeated)

And can it be that I should gain
An interest in the Saviour's blood?
Died he for me, who caused his pain?
For me, who him to death pursued?
Amazing love! How can it be
That thou, my God, shouldst die for me?

He left his Father's throne above –
So free, so infinite his grace –
Emptied himself of all but love,
And bled for Adam's helpless race.
'Tis mercy all, immense and free;
For, O my God, it found out me!

Long my imprisoned spirit lay
Fast bound in sin and nature's night:
Thine eye diffused a quickening ray –
I woke, the dungeon flamed with light.
My chains fell off, my heart was free.
I rose, went forth, and followed thee.

No condemnation now I dread;
Jesus, and all in him, is mine!
Alive in him, my living Head,
And clothed in righteousness divine.
Bold I approach the eternal throne,
And claim the crown, through Christ, my own.
